SBA Reminds Individuals and Business Owners that Personal Service is Still Available at Several Locations

Sacramento, CA – Eugene Cornelius, Jr., Director of the U. S. Small Business Administration’s (SBA) Louisiana District Office, today reminded individuals and business owners that SBA continues to have customer service representatives in one Disaster Recovery Center and three Disaster Loan Outreach Centers in Louisiana. These representatives are available to provide hurricane victims general information, to accept loan documents and assist with closing their approved loans.

“SBA Customer Service Representatives (CSRs) are available at the following Centers to provide personalized service. You do not need an appointment to visit one of the centers,” he continued. SBA CSRs will be available on the days and times indicated, until further notice:
